

ACADEMY OF APPLIED MYOFUNCTIONAL SCIENCES

1 To provide educational and research media in the area of myofunctional therapy for our members, the academic community and the general public worldwide.

2 To build a membership network of aligned professionals and interested parties whose intention is to expand and develop the field of myofunctional therapy.

3 To develop and produce educational symposia that center on relevant topics in the field of myofunctional therapy and stomatognathic system.

4 To facilitate scientific research in the field of myofunctional therapy.

5 To develop and maintain standards for the delivery of care in the field Of myofunctional therapy.

6 Participate in trade shows, conferences and conventions that are specific to this field to promote and expand awareness of orofacial Myofunctional disorders and treatment options.

7 To build networking relationships with interdisciplinary, allied health Professionals and respective trade associations.